The Broadway Symphony/Seattle Chamber Singers would deeply appreciate your gift of support. Contributions may be sent to: BSSCS, 2115 N. 42nd, Seattle, WA 98103, (206) 547-0427.
The collaboration of the BROADWAY SYMPHONY and the SEATTLE CHAMBER SINGERS has become a respected musical force in the Pacific Northwest. This company of volunteer artists is dedicated to the presentation of exciting and polished musical performances. Each ensemble rehearses at University Unitarian Church, where they enjoy the status of artists-in-residence, and where they further develop their repertoire under conductor George Shangrow. Membership is by audition, and general auditions for vacant positions are held every August and September. On several occasions each season, smaller ensembles are formed from the main ensembles for the performance of chamber music. Especially important to the Broadway Symphony/Seattle Chamber Singers is the support and presentation of local performing artists and the work of local composers.

GEORGE SHANGROW, Music Director and Conductor of the Broadway Symphony and Seattle Chamber Singers, is a native of Seattle who founded the chorus (in 1968) and the orchestra (in 1978) in order to give Seattle area artists and audiences a chance to hear and perform great works of music. In addition to acclaimed performances of the classical music repertoire for both chorus and orchestra, he has brought to Seattle world premiers of operas, choral works, and symphonies by Seattle's most gifted local composers. Mr. Shangrow has toured Europe as a conductor and keyboard artist; appeared as a guest conductor with the Seattle Symphony, Northwest Chamber Orchestra, and East Texas University Opera; and lectures frequently for the Seattle Opera and Symphony. As Director of Music for University Unitarian Church, Mr. Shangrow is a leader in the performance of sacred music, and as the guiding producer of The Bach Year in Seattle (1985) he brought to our city the world's most extensive celebration of the music of J. S. Bach.

George Frederick Handel’s MESSIAH
Libretto by Charles Jennens, 1742

PART I.

1. Overture
2. Recitative
   Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God: speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem; and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.
3. Air
   Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill made low; the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain.
4. Chorus
   And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.
5. Recitative
   Thus saith the Lord of Hosts:—Yea once a little while I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the dry land; and I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come. The Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in; Behold, He shall come, saith the Lord of Hosts.
6. Air
   But who may abide the day of His coming, and who shall stand when He appeareth? For He is like a refiner’s fire.
7. Chorus
   Behold, He shall purify the sons of Levi, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.
8. Recitative
   Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a Son, and shall call his name Emmanuel, God with us.
9. Air
   O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion, get thee up into the high mountain; O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!
10. Chorus
    Arise, shine, for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.
11. Air
    The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: And they that dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.
12. Chorus
    For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon His shoulder: and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace.
13. Pastoral Symphony
14. Recitative
   There were shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night. And lo! the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and they were sore afraid.
15. Recitative
   And the angel said unto them, Fear not; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.
   For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.
16. Recitative
   And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying:
17. Chorus
   Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill towards men.
18. Air
   Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem; Behold, thy king cometh unto thee. He is the righteous Savior, and He shall speak peace unto the heathen.
19. Recitative
   Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing.
20. Air
   He shall feed His flock like a shepherd; and He shall gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom, and gently lead those that are with young.
21. Chorus
   Come unto Him, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and He shall give you rest.
   Take His yoke upon you, and learn of Him; for He is meek and lowly of heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls.
22. Chorus
   His yoke is easy and His burden is light.

—INTERMISSION—

PART II.

22. Chorus
   Behold the Lamb of God, that taketh away the sins of the world.
23. Air
   He was despised and rejected of men: a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief.
   He was given to the transgressors, and He carried our sorrows, and was despised.
   Surely He hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; He was wounded for our transgressions; He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him.
24. Chorus
   And with His stripes we are healed.
25. Chorus
   All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all.
26. Recitative
   All they that see Him, laugh Him to scorn; they shoot out snares, and shake their heads, saying—
27. Chorus
   He trusted in that He would deliver Him; let Him deliver Him, if He delight in Him.
28. Recitative
   Thy rebuke hath broken His heart; He is full of heaviness.
   He looked for some to have pity on Him, but there was no man; neither found He any to comfort Him.
29. Air
   Behold, and see if there be among you sorrow like unto His sorrow.
30. Chorus
   He was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of Thy people was He stricken.
31. Air
   But Thou didst not leave Him in hell; nor didst Thou suffer Thy Holy One to see corruption.
32. Chorus
   Lift up your heads, 0 ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

—INTERMISSION—

PART III.

45. Air
   I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth; and though worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God.
   For now is Christ risen from the dead, the first-fruits of them that sleep.
46. Chorus
   Since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
47. Recitative
   Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep; but we shall all be changed in a moment, in a twinkling of an eye, by the last trumpet.
   The trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
   For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.
