The collaboration of the BROADWAY SYMPHONY and the SEATTLE CHAMBER SINGERS has become a respected musical force in the Pacific Northwest. This company of volunteer artists is dedicated to the presentation of exciting and polished musical performances. Each ensemble rehearses at University Unitarian Church, where they enjoy the status of artists-in-residence, and where they further develop their repertory under conductor George Shangrow. Membership is by audition, and general auditions for vacant positions are held every August and September. On several occasions each season, smaller ensembles are formed from the main ensembles for the performance of chamber music. Especially important to the Broadway Symphony/Seattle Chamber Singers is the support and presentation of local performing artists and the work of local composers.

GEORGE SHANGROW, Music Director and Conductor of the Broadway Symphony and Seattle Chamber Singers, is a native of Seattle who founded the chorus (in 1968) and the orchestra (in 1978) in order to give Seattle area artists and audiences a chance to hear and perform great works of music. In addition to acclaimed performances of the classical music repertoire for both chorus and orchestra, he has brought to Seattle world premieres of operas, choral works, and symphonies by Seattle's most gifted local composers. Mr. Shangrow has toured Europe as a conductor and keyboard artist; appeared as a guest conductor with the Seattle Symphony, Northwest Chamber Orchestra, and East Texas University Opera; and lectures frequently for the Seattle Opera and Symphony. As Director of Music for University Unitarian Church, Mr. Shangrow is a leader in the performance of sacred music, and as the guiding producer of The Bach Year in Seattle (1985) he brought to our city the world's most extensive celebration of the music of J. S. Bach.

INTERMISSION

Was mir behagt, ist nur die muntre Jagd!

Diana - Carol Sams
Pales - Ann Erickson
Endymion - Randy Bullo
Pan - Brian Box
8. Recitative - Palea

Shall Pales' offering be forgotten? No! No! I shall fully fulfill the duty, and as the whole land resounds with Vivitas, I shall also stir this beautiful field with the joyful and delighted praises of our Saxon hero.

9. Aria - Palea

Sheep may safely graze where a good shepherd watches. Where the prince rules wisely, one can discover peace and harmony and all that which makes the people happy.

10. Recitative - Diana

Now we should sing as one, that the day's joy should be complete!

11. Chorus

Long live the Sun of the Earth, while Diana keeps watch in the night from the citadel of Heaven, while the woods grow green, long live the Sun of the Earth!

12. Duet - Diana, Endymion

Enchant us both, you rays of joy, and adorn the heavens with the brilliance of your diamonds! Coach Duke Christian on the loveliest roses, and free him from sadness!

13. Aria - Palea

While the flighty flocks wander joyfully through this verdant field, long live the Saxon hero!

14. Aria - Pan

You fields and meadows, displaying your verdure, cry Vivitas! For the Duke lives in abundance and peace!

15. Chorus

You lovely prospects, you happy hours, may you remain united with fortune forever! May you crown Heaven with sweet pleasures! Long live Duke Christian! In him reside all that gladdens the heart and banishes pain!

1. Recitative - Diana

My one delight is in a lively hunt! Before aurora appears, before she rises in the Heavens, this arrow has already taken worthy prey!

2. Aria - Diana

Hunting is the joy of gods, hunting is the hero's sport! Yield, my bantering sympha, stand clear of Diana's way!

3. Recitative - Endymion

How now, most beautiful goddesses! Do you no longer know the former half of life? Have you not given to Endymion in sweet repose so many blissful kisses? Are you then, most beautiful ones, in an instant freed from the bonds of love and follow only the chase?

4. Aria - Endymion

Will you no longer take delight in the toilet of love? When joy and love are attained after fervent seeking, how dearly are they cherished!

5. Recitative - Diana, Endymion

I love you still! But today a great light shines, which, above all, I must welcome and attend! The dear christians, the Pan of the forest, can no longer celebrate in suitable prosperity, the festival of his noble birth.

Then favor me, Diana, that I may join with you and kindle an offering of joy.

Yes, yes! Together now we bear our torches of praise with well-wishing and happiness!

6. Recitative - Pan

I, the accustomed god of these fields, lay down my shepherd's staff before Christian's sovereign scepter! For this radiant Pan so joyous makes the land, that forest and field and all live and laugh!

7. Aria - Pan

A prince is his country's Pan; even as a body without a soul can neither live nor move, so is the land that is without a leader and prince the cave of death and knows not its best part.

8. Recitative - Paleo

Shall Pales' offering be forgotten? No! No! I shall fully fulfill the duty, and as the whole land resounds with Vivats, I shall also stir this beautiful field with the joyful and delighted praises of our Saxon hero.

9. Aria - Paleo

Sheep may safely graze where a good shepherd watches. Where the prince rules wisely, one can discover peace and harmony and all that which makes the people happy.

13. Aria - Paleo

While the sleeky flocks wander joyfully through this verdant field, long live the Saxon hero!

14. Aria - Pan

You fields and meadows, displaying your verdure, cry Vivat! For the Duke lives in abundance and peace!

15. Chorus

You lovely prospects, you happy hours, may you remain united with fortune forever! May you crown Heaven with sweet pleasures! Long live Duke Christian! In him reside all that gladdens the heart and banishes pain!
