LUTE
Mary Lord

Mary Lord moved to the Seattle area from Munich, Germany, in September, 1990. As an active member of the Seattle Classical Guitar Society she has performed in and organized concerts for SCGS members. She has performed at Bumbershoot, at the Orcas Center, and on Live by George on Classic KING FM. She currently teaches out of her home and has taught at the Rosewood Guitar and the Burton Music Summer Camp. In 1991 she was a quarter-finalist at the International Competition sponsored by the Guitar Federation of the Americas. Her transcriptions for guitar solo and ensemble are being performed all over the US by professional ensembles such as the Buffalo and the Minneapolis Guitar Quartets, and have been purchased by university guitar departments.

In Munich, she taught and performed on guitar, and renaissance and baroque lute. She was co-founder of the Munich Lute Forum, created to build a bridge between guitarists and lutenists at all skill levels.
